Genevieve Maser

Ms. Genevieve has voluntarily spent many years of her life in post-secondary education, simply because she loves to learn. She has 2 Bachelor's degrees and 2 Master's degrees (the first in History and the second in Gifted Education.) If she could describe herself in one word, it would be 'curious'. She understands the joy and importance of falling down a knowledge rabbit-hole. She believes that when students are advanced, they need room to explore and love what they are learning. She speaks English and French, and is stubbornly making her way towards mild proficiency in Russian. Ms. Genevieve is from Montreal, Canada and has one daughter in grade 3 here at BIS. She has previously taught at university in Canada (Dalhousie), as well as primary and secondary schools in Russia, Uzbekistan, and now Kyrgyzstan.
